

REAL ZIONISM

GROUPS AND OPINIONS IN ISRAELI SOCIETY

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 2019 | 9:30 - 11 AM

The dream of coming to the Land has been in the Jewish consciousness for 2,000 years. Actualizing Jewish immigration, absorption and settlement alongside the complexity of Israeli social life, is a challenge Israelis deal with every day. Join Einat Kapach, Movie Director and Lecturer, who will show and discuss two of her short films.

BARRIERS

(Drama, Israeli-Palestinian conflict, 22 min.)

Uri, a young officer, together with two soldiers under his command, is manning a checkpoint. Two women from the "Watch" organization are filming events at the checkpoint. Uri receives an order to close the checkpoint because of a bomb threat, and tension rises as an ambulance carrying a sick child arrives from a Palestinian village. Uri's choices will either save or sacrifice peoples' lives.

THE LITTLE DICTATOR

(Comedy, 30 min.)

Yossi Kleinmann, a dull history professor and expert on the political leaders of totalitarian regimes, feels unappreciated both by his students and his domineering wife. One weekend, at the 90th birthday part of his wife's grandmother, a Holocaust survivor, Yossi finds himself in a surreal situation that forces him to face up to himself and his family.
